To whom it may concern

Dear Sirs

The team at P&A Shopfitting have successfully completed high value projects in guest facing units across Center Parcs holiday villages to a very high standard. They take the designs and turn them into reality, delivering on time, in budget and executing projects with excellent attention to detail and displaying high quality craftsmanship. Nothing is too much trouble for them, the combination of their personable approach, experience, and professional manner serve to ensure client satisfaction and the establishment of long-lasting relations.

It is for these reasons that we continue to work with P&A Shopfitting and would not hesitate to recommend them as a main fit-out contractor.

Yours faithfully

Mike Henderson
